INTRODUCTION

1. The United States Congress has found the banking system is dependent upon fair and accurate credit reporting. Inaccurate credit reports directly impair the efficiency of the banking system, and unfair credit reporting methods undermine the public confidence, which is essential to the continued functioning of the banking system. Congress enacted the Fair Credit

Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq. (“FCRA”), to insure fair and accurate reporting, promote efficiency in the banking system, and protect consumer privacy. The FCRA seeks to ensure consumer reporting agencies exercise their grave responsibilities with fairness, impartiality, and a respect for the consumer’s right to privacy because consumer reporting agencies have assumed such a vital role in assembling and evaluating consumer credit and other information on consumers. The FCRA also imposes duties on the sources that provide credit information to credit reporting agencies, called “furnishers.”

2. The FCRA protects consumers through a tightly wound set of procedural protections from the material risk of harms that otherwise flow from inaccurate reporting. Thus, through the FCRA, Congress struck a balance between the credit industry’s desire to base credit decisions on accurate information, and consumers’ substantive right to protection from damage to reputation, shame, mortification, and the emotional distress that naturally follows from inaccurate reporting of a consumer’s fidelity to his or her financial obligations.
3. CYNTHIA J. SMITH (“Plaintiff”), by Plaintiff’s attorneys, brings this action to challenge the actions of BANK OF AMERICA, N.A. (“BOA”), MARRIOTT VACATION CLUB (“MARRIOTT”), USAA FEDERAL SAVINGS BANK (“USAA”), and EQUIFAX INFORMATION SERVICES, LLC (“Equifax”) (or jointly as “Defendants”) with regard to erroneously reporting derogatory credit information to national reporting agencies.

4. Defendants failed to properly investigate Plaintiff’s disputes, damaging Plaintiff’s creditworthiness.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. This Court has federal question jurisdiction because this case arises out of violation of federal law. 15 U.S.C. §1681 et seq.; 28 U.S.C. §1331; Smith v. Community Lending, Inc., 773 F.Supp.2d 941, 946 (D. Nev. 2011).
6. This action arises out of each Defendant’s violations of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681-1681(x) (“FCRA”).
7. Venue is proper in the United States District Court for the District of Nevada pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because Plaintiff is a resident of Clark County, the State of Nevada and because Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in the County of Clark, State of Nevada as they conduct business there. Venue is also proper because, the conduct giving rise to this action occurred in Nevada. 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2). Further, Equifax has a registered agent of service in Nevada and is listed with the Nevada Secretary of State as a foreign limited liability company doing business in Nevada.

PARTIES

8. Plaintiff is a natural person residing in the County of Clark, State of Nevada.

In addition, Plaintiff is a “consumer” as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1681a(c).
9. Defendant BOA is a corporation doing business in the State of Nevada.
10. Defendant BOA is a furnisher of information as contemplated by 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b) that regularly and in the ordinary course of business furnishes information to a consumer credit reporting agency.
11. Defendant MARRIOTT is a corporation doing business in the State of Nevada.
12. Defendant MARRIOTT is a furnisher of information as contemplated by 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b) that regularly and in the ordinary course of business furnishes information to a consumer credit reporting agency.
13. Defendant USAA is a corporation doing business in the State of Nevada.
14. Defendant USAA is a furnisher of information as contemplated by 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b) that regularly and in the ordinary course of business furnishes information to a consumer credit reporting agency.
15. Defendant Equifax regularly assembles and/or evaluates consumer credit information for the purpose of furnishing consumer reports to third parties, and uses interstate commerce to prepare and/or furnish the reports. Equifax is a “consumer reporting agency” as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1681a(f), doing business with its principal place of business in Georgia.

16. Unless otherwise indicated, the use of Defendants’ name in this Complaint includes all agents, employees, officers, members, directors, heirs, successors, assigns, principals, trustees, sureties, subrogees, representatives, and insurers of Defendants’ named.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. On or about 6/13/2011, Plaintiff filed for Chapter 13 Bankruptcy in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Nevada pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §1301 et seq. Plaintiff’s case was assigned Case Number 11-19256-mkn (the “Chapter 13” or “Bankruptcy”).
18. The obligations (“Debt”) to each Defendant herein (as applicable) were scheduled in the Bankruptcy and each respective creditor-Defendant, or its predecessor in interest, received notice of the Bankruptcy.
19. On June 10, 2016, the Plaintiff’s Chapter 13 Plan was confirmed (the “Confirmed Chapter 13 Plan” or “Confirmation Order”).
20. A confirmed plan constitutes a new contract between the debtor and creditors and a creditor’s rights are defined by the confirmed plan. Consequently, a pre-petition claim provided for in a confirmed plan is no longer a pre-petition claim. The claim is a right to payment arising from the confirmed plan. Padilla

v. Wells Fargo Home Mortg., Inc. (In re Padilla), 379 B.R. 643, 649, 2007 Bankr. LEXIS 2655, *1 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2007).

21. Plaintiff made all payments required under the terms of the Confirmed Chapter 13 plan.
22. None of the Defendants named herein filed any proceedings to declare their alleged debts “non-dischargeable” pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 523 et seq.
23. None of the Defendants named herein obtained relief from the “automatic stay” codified at 11 U.S.C. §362 et seq. while the Plaintiff’s Bankruptcy was pending to pursue the Plaintiff for any personal liability.
24. Accordingly, the debts to each Defendant named herein (as applicable) were discharged through the Bankruptcy on 9/19/2016.
25. Further, while the automatic stay was in effect during the Bankruptcy, it was illegal and inaccurate for any of the creditor-defendants to report any post-Bankruptcy derogatory collection information, which was inconsistent with the Orders entered by the Bankruptcy Court.
26. However, Defendants named herein, and each of them, either reported or caused to be reported inaccurate information after the Bankruptcy as discussed herein.
27. Defendant’s reporting post-Bankruptcy derogatory information was inaccurate and misleading in that each Defendant continued reporting information based on each respective Defendant's pre-bankruptcy contract terms with the Plaintiff, which were no longer enforceable upon the bankruptcy filing, thereby rendering the disputed information "inaccurate".

28. The adverse information reported by Defendants was based on each respective Defendant's improper enforcement and reporting of pre-bankruptcy obligations, where such reporting failed to comply with the payment structure set forth in the Plaintiff's Chapter 13 Plan. Failing to report consistent with the terms of the Chapter 13 plan was therefore inaccurate, since all the Plaintiff's pre-bankruptcy creditors (whether eventually discharged or not) were subject to repayment pursuant to the Chapter 13 plan terms while the Bankruptcy was pending.

29. Additionally, Defendant's inaccurate reporting did not comply with the Consumer Data Industry Association's Metro 2 reporting standards, which provides guidance for credit reporting and FCRA compliance.

30. The Consumer Data Industry Association ("CDIA") publishes the Metro 2 ("Metro 2") reporting standards to assist furnishers with their compliance requirements under the FCRA.

31. Courts rely on such guidance to determine furnisher liability. See e.g. In re Helmes, 336 B.R. 105, 107 (Bankr. E.D. Va. 2005) (finding that "industry standards require that a debt discharged in bankruptcy be reported to a credit reporting agency with the notation 'Discharged in bankruptcy' and with a zero balance due").

32. On information and belief, Defendants herein adopted and at all times relevant implemented the Metro 2 format.

33. On information and belief, each furnisher-Defendant named herein adopted the Metro 2 reporting standards and at all times relevant implemented the Metro 2 format as an integral aspect of their respective duties under the FCRA to have in place adequate and reasonable policies and procedures to handle investigations of disputed information.

34. The Metro 2 format guidelines for credit reporting are nearly identical for reports made during the "Month BK Filed," "Months Between Petition Filed and BK Resolution," and after "Plan Completed" for Chapter 13 Debtors and furnishers who choose to report post-bankruptcy credit information to CRAs. See e.g., 2015 CDIA Credit Reporting Resource Guide ("2015 Metro 2"), Frequently Asked Question 28(a), at pages 6-21 – 6-22.

35. Thus, many of the consumer reporting fields should be reported the same way both during and after a bankruptcy proceeding, id., with the following relevant exceptions:

a. Current Balance

- i. For the “Month BK Filed” and “Months Between Petition Filed & BK Resolution,” Metro 2 instructs the furnisher to report the outstanding balance amount. Id.
 - ii. However, for the “Plan Confirmed” period, Metro 2 instructs the furnisher to report the “Chapter 13 plan balance, which should decline as payments are made.” Id. at 6-22.
 - iii. And, for Current Balance reporting when “Plan Completed – All payments made according to plan – no further obligation,” Metro 2 instructs the furnisher to report a current balance of “Zero.” Id.
- b. Scheduled Monthly Payment Amount:
- i. For the “Month BK Filed” and “Months Between Petition Filed & BK Resolution,” Metro 2 instructs the furnisher to report the “contractual monthly payment amount.” Id. at 6-21.
 - ii. However, for the “Plan Confirmed” period, Metro 2 instructs the furnisher to report the “Chapter 13 Payment Amount.” Id. at 6-22.
 - iii. And, for Scheduled Monthly Payment Amount reporting when “Plan Completed – All payments made according to plan – no further obligation,” Metro 2 instructs the furnisher to report a current balance of “Zero.” Id.

- 36.Despite Metro 2 Format's instructions, each furnisher-Defendant named herein failed to conform to the Metro 2 Format when reporting on Plaintiff's accounts after the Plaintiff filed Bankruptcy as further set forth below.
- 37.In turn, each of the credit reporting agencies named herein, rereported the inaccurate information, thus violating their duty to follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy under 15 U.S.C. § 1681e(b) when preparing a consumer report.
- 38.To this end, the adverse reporting on the Plaintiff's consumer report departed from the credit industry's own reporting standards and was not only inaccurate, but also materially misleading under the CDIA's standards as well.
- 39.A "materially misleading" statement is concerned with omissions to credit entries, that in context create misperceptions about otherwise may be factually accurate data. Gorman v. Wolpoff & Abramson, LLP, 584 F.3d 1147, 1163 (9th Cir. 2009).

THE EQUIFAX VIOLATIONS

BOA Misreported Credit Information

RE: Account No. 8354 (High Credit $28,624)

- 40.In an Equifax credit report dated February 14, 2017, BOA inaccurately reported that there was a "scheduled payment amount" of $361, even though Plaintiff was discharged on 9/19/2016 and no payments were due on this account creating the misleading and false impression that a debt was still owed and due.

41. On or about March 23, 2017, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(2), Plaintiff disputed BOA's reported information regarding its reported obligation by notifying Equifax, in writing, of the incorrect and inaccurate credit information furnished by BOA.

42. Specifically, Plaintiff sent a letter, certified, return receipt, to Equifax (the "Equifax Dispute Letter"), requesting the above inaccurate and incorrect derogatory information be removed, corrected or deleted.

43. Upon information and belief, upon receiving the Equifax Dispute Letter, Equifax timely notified BOA of the dispute based on its mandated statutory duty pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i.

44. Defendants were each required to conduct an investigation into this specific account on Plaintiff's consumer report pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i.

45. On or about April 24, 2017, Plaintiff received notification from Equifax through its "reinvestigation" (Equifax Report No. 7114081759) that BOA and Equifax received notice of Plaintiff's dispute pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(6).

46. A reasonable investigation by these Defendants would have indicated that Plaintiff filed for Chapter 13 bankruptcy and made all required Chapter 13 plan payments, since Plaintiff obtained a discharge.
47. BOA and Equifax failed to conduct a reasonable investigation as required by 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(A) and/or 1681i(a), and wrongly verified inaccurate information in connection with Plaintiff's credit reports.
48. BOA and Equifax failed to review all relevant information provided by Plaintiff in the dispute to Equifax, as required by and in violation of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(B) and 1681i(a), respectively.
49. BOA and Equifax re-reported the inaccurate derogatory information on Plaintiff's report. Specifically, BOA and Equifax still inaccurately reported that there was a "scheduled payment amount" of $361, even though Plaintiff was discharged on 9/19/2016. Also, BOA and Equifax now inaccurately reported that there was an "actual payment amount" of $400, even though Plaintiff was discharged on 9/19/2016 and no payments were made or due on this account creating the misleading and false impression that a debt was still owed and due.
50. BOA and Equifax, upon receipt of Plaintiff's dispute, failed to conduct an investigation with respect to the disputed information as required by 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(B) and/or 1681i(a), respectively.

51. Due to BOA's and Equifax's failure to reasonably investigate Plaintiff's dispute, they each further failed to correct and update Plaintiff's information as required by 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b)(1)(E), thereby causing continued reporting of inaccurate information in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b)(1)(C) and/or 1681e(b), respectively.

52. Reporting and rereporting the above-referenced derogatory information also constituted a violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681g(a) because the lack of clarity in the information reported and rereported has the tendency to confuse ordinary consumers like Plaintiff.

53. Plaintiff's continued efforts to correct BOA's and Equifax's erroneous and negative reporting of the discharged debt by communicating Plaintiff's dispute with BOA and Equifax were fruitless.

54. BOA's and Equifax's continued inaccurate and negative reporting of the discharged debt in light of its knowledge of the actual error was willful. Plaintiff is, accordingly, eligible for statutory damages.

55. Also as a result of BOA's and Equifax's continued inaccurate and negative reporting, Plaintiff has suffered actual damages, including without limitation fear of credit denials, out-of-pocket expenses in challenging the Defendants' wrongful representations, damage to his creditworthiness, and emotional distress.

56. By inaccurately reporting account information relating to the discharged debt after notice and confirmation of its errors, BOA and Equifax failed to take the appropriate measures as required under 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681-s(2)(b)(1)(D) and/or (E), 1681i(a) and 1681e(b), respectively.

USAA Misreported Credit Information

RE: Account No. 77 (8497*)

57. In an Equifax credit report dated February 14, 2017, USAA inaccurately reported that the Plaintiff was 30 days past due in May 2015 and 60 days past due from June 2015 through July 2015. This was inaccurate, since the Plaintiff performed all obligations owed to USAA after filing Chapter 13 and obtained a discharge. Moreover, USAA was paid according to the Chapter 13 Plan by the Chapter 13 Trustee and it was inaccurate for USAA to report that the Plaintiff was “past due” after the Chapter 13 filing, since the Plaintiff fully performed all obligations owed to USAA after filing the Chapter 13.

58. On or about March 23, 2017, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(2), Plaintiff disputed USAA’s reported information regarding its reported obligation by notifying Equifax, in writing, of the incorrect and inaccurate credit information furnished by USAA.

59. Specifically, Plaintiff sent a letter, certified, return receipt, to Equifax (the “Equifax Dispute Letter”), requesting the above inaccurate and incorrect derogatory information be removed, corrected or deleted.

60. Upon information and belief, upon receiving the Equifax Dispute Letter, Equifax timely notified USAA of the dispute based on its mandated statutory duty pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i.

61. Defendants were each required to conduct an investigation into this specific account on Plaintiff’s consumer report pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i.

62. On or about April 24, 2017, Plaintiff received notification from Equifax through its “reinvestigation” (Equifax Report No. 7114081759) that USAA and Equifax received notice of Plaintiff’s dispute pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(6).

63. A reasonable investigation by these Defendants would have indicated that Plaintiff filed for Chapter 13 bankruptcy and made all required Chapter 13 plan payments, since Plaintiff obtained a discharge.

64. USAA and Equifax failed to conduct a reasonable investigation as required by 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(A) and/or 1681i(a), and wrongly verified inaccurate information in connection with Plaintiff’s credit reports.

- 65.USAA and Equifax failed to review all relevant information provided by Plaintiff in the dispute to Equifax, as required by and in violation of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(B) and 1681i(a), respectively.
- 66.USAA and Equifax re-reported the inaccurate derogatory information on Plaintiff's report. Specifically, USAA and Equifax still inaccurately reported that the Plaintiff was 30 days past due in May 2015 and 60 days past due from June 2015 through July 2015. Also, USAA and Equifax now inaccurately reported past due balances from April 2015 through August 2015. This was inaccurate, since the Plaintiff performed all obligations required under the Chapter 13 Plan and obtained a discharge. Moreover, USAA was paid according to the Chapter 13 Plan by the Chapter 13 Trustee and it was inaccurate for USAA to report balances "past due" after the Chapter 13 filing, since the Plaintiff fully performed under the Chapter 13.
- 67.USAA and Equifax, upon receipt of Plaintiff's dispute, failed to conduct an investigation with respect to the disputed information as required by 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(B) and/or 1681i(a), respectively.
- 68.Due to USAA's and Equifax's failure to reasonably investigate Plaintiff's dispute, they each further failed to correct and update Plaintiff's information as required by 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b)(1)(E), thereby causing continued reporting of inaccurate information in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681s(2)(b)(1)(C) and/or 1681e(b), respectively.

69. Reporting and rereporting the above-referenced derogatory information also constituted a violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681g(a) because the lack of clarity in the information reported and rereported has the tendency to confuse ordinary consumers like Plaintiff.

70. Plaintiff's continued efforts to correct USAA's and Equifax's erroneous and negative reporting of the discharged debt by communicating Plaintiff's dispute with USAA and Equifax were fruitless.

71. USAA's and Equifax's continued inaccurate and negative reporting of the discharged debt in light of its knowledge of the actual error was willful. Plaintiff is, accordingly, eligible for statutory damages.

72. Also as a result of USAA's and Equifax's continued inaccurate and negative reporting, Plaintiff has suffered actual damages, including without limitation fear of credit denials, out-of-pocket expenses in challenging the Defendants' wrongful representations, damage to his creditworthiness, and emotional distress.

73. By inaccurately reporting account information relating to the discharged debt after notice and confirmation of its errors, USAA and Equifax failed to take the appropriate measures as required under 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681-s(2)(b)(1)(D) and/or (E), 1681i(a) and 1681e(b), respectively.

MARRIOTT Misreported Credit Information

RE: Account No. 5857 (10011*)

74. In an Equifax credit report dated February 14, 2017, MARRIOTT inaccurately reported that there was a “scheduled payment amount” of $194, even though Plaintiff was discharged on 9/19/2016 and no payments were due on this account creating the misleading and false impression that a debt was still owed and due.

75. On or about March 23, 2017, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(2), Plaintiff disputed MARRIOTT’s reported information regarding its reported obligation by notifying Equifax, in writing, of the incorrect and inaccurate credit information furnished by MARRIOTT.

76. Specifically, Plaintiff sent a letter, certified, return receipt, to Equifax (the “Equifax Dispute Letter”), requesting the above inaccurate and incorrect derogatory information be removed, corrected or deleted.

77. Upon information and belief, upon receiving the Equifax Dispute Letter, Equifax timely notified MARRIOTT of the dispute based on its mandated statutory duty pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i.

78. Defendants were each required to conduct an investigation into this specific account on Plaintiff's consumer report pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1681i.

79. On or about April 24, 2017, Plaintiff received notification from Equifax through its "reinvestigation" (Equifax Report No. 7114081759) that MARRIOTT and Equifax received notice of Plaintiff's dispute pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(6).

80. A reasonable investigation by these Defendants would have indicated that Plaintiff filed for Chapter 13 bankruptcy and made all required Chapter 13 plan payments, since Plaintiff obtained a discharge.

81. MARRIOTT and Equifax failed to conduct a reasonable investigation as required by 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(A) and/or 1681i(a), and wrongly verified inaccurate information in connection with Plaintiff's credit reports.

82. MARRIOTT and Equifax failed to review all relevant information provided by Plaintiff in the dispute to Equifax, as required by and in violation of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(B) and 1681i(a), respectively.

83. MARRIOTT and Equifax re-reported the inaccurate derogatory information on Plaintiff's report. Specifically, MARRIOTT and Equifax still inaccurately reported that there was a "scheduled payment amount" of $194, even though Plaintiff was discharged on 9/19/2016. Also, MARRIOTT and Equifax now inaccurately reported that there was an "actual payment amount" of $10,888, even though Plaintiff was discharged on 9/19/2016 and no payments were made or due on this account creating the misleading and false impression that a debt was still owed and due.

84.MARRIOTT and Equifax, upon receipt of Plaintiff's dispute, failed to conduct an investigation with respect to the disputed information as required by 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(B) and/or 1681i(a), respectively.

85.Due to MARRIOTT's and Equifax's failure to reasonably investigate Plaintiff's dispute, they each further failed to correct and update Plaintiff's information as required by 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b)(1)(E), thereby causing continued reporting of inaccurate information in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681-s(2)(b)(1)(C) and/or 1681e(b), respectively.

86.Reporting and rereporting the above-referenced derogatory information also constituted a violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681g(a) because the lack of clarity in the information reported and rereported has the tendency to confuse ordinary consumers like Plaintiff.

87.Plainiff's continued efforts to correct MARRIOTT's and Equifax's erroneous and negative reporting of the discharged debt by communicating Plaintiff's dispute with MARRIOTT and Equifax were fruitless.

88.MARRIOTT's and Equifax's continued inaccurate and negative reporting of the discharged debt in light of its knowledge of the actual error was willful. Plaintiff is, accordingly, eligible for statutory damages.

89.Also as a result of MARRIOTT's and Equifax's continued inaccurate and negative reporting, Plaintiff has suffered actual damages, including without limitation fear of credit denials, out-of-pocket expenses in challenging the Defendants' wrongful representations, damage to his creditworthiness, and emotional distress.

90.By inaccurately reporting account information relating to the discharged debt after notice and confirmation of its errors, MARRIOTT and Equifax failed to take the appropriate measures as required under 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s(2)(b)(1)(D) and/or (E), 1681i(a) and 1681e(b), respectively.

MARRIOTT Misreported Credit Information

RE: Account No. 22 (2230*)

91.In an Equifax credit report dated February 14, 2017, MARRIOTT inaccurately reported that there was a "scheduled payment amount" of $311, even though Plaintiff was discharged on 9/19/2016 and no payments were due on this account creating the misleading and false impression that a debt was still owed and due.

92. On or about March 23, 2017, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(2), Plaintiff disputed MARRIOTT's reported information regarding its reported obligation by notifying Equifax, in writing, of the incorrect and inaccurate credit information furnished by MARRIOTT.

93. Specifically, Plaintiff sent a letter, certified, return receipt, to Equifax (the "Equifax Dispute Letter"), requesting the above inaccurate and incorrect derogatory information be removed, corrected or deleted.

94. Upon information and belief, upon receiving the Equifax Dispute Letter, Equifax timely notified MARRIOTT of the dispute based on its mandated statutory duty pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i.

95. Defendants were each required to conduct an investigation into this specific account on Plaintiff's consumer report pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i.

96. On or about April 24, 2017, Plaintiff received notification from Equifax through its "reinvestigation" (Equifax Report No. 7114081759) that MARRIOTT and Equifax received notice of Plaintiff's dispute pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(6).

97. A reasonable investigation by these Defendants would have indicated that Plaintiff filed for Chapter 13 bankruptcy and made all required Chapter 13 plan payments, since Plaintiff obtained a discharge.

98. MARRIOTT and Equifax failed to conduct a reasonable investigation as required by 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(A) and/or 1681i(a), and wrongly verified inaccurate information in connection with Plaintiff's credit reports.
99. MARRIOTT and Equifax failed to review all relevant information provided by Plaintiff in the dispute to Equifax, as required by and in violation of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(B) and 1681i(a), respectively.
100. MARRIOTT and Equifax re-reported the inaccurate derogatory information on Plaintiff's report. Specifically, MARRIOTT and Equifax still inaccurately reported that there was a "scheduled payment amount" of $311, even though Plaintiff was discharged on 9/19/2016.
101. MARRIOTT and Equifax, upon receipt of Plaintiff's dispute, failed to conduct an investigation with respect to the disputed information as required by 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(B) and/or 1681i(a), respectively.
102. Due to MARRIOTT's and Equifax's failure to reasonably investigate Plaintiff's dispute, they each further failed to correct and update Plaintiff's information as required by 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b)(1)(E), thereby causing continued reporting of inaccurate information in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681-s(2)(b)(1)(C) and/or 1681e(b), respectively.
103. Reporting and rereporting the above-referenced derogatory information also constituted a violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681g(a) because the lack of clarity in the information reported and rereported has the tendency to confuse ordinary consumers like Plaintiff.

104. Plaintiff's continued efforts to correct MARRIOTT's and Equifax's erroneous and negative reporting of the discharged debt by communicating Plaintiff's dispute with MARRIOTT and Equifax were fruitless.

105. MARRIOTT's and Equifax's continued inaccurate and negative reporting of the discharged debt in light of its knowledge of the actual error was willful. Plaintiff is, accordingly, eligible for statutory damages.

106. Also as a result of MARRIOTT's and Equifax's continued inaccurate and negative reporting, Plaintiff has suffered actual damages, including without limitation fear of credit denials, out-of-pocket expenses in challenging the Defendants' wrongful representations, damage to his creditworthiness, and emotional distress.

USAA Misreported Credit Information

RE: Account No. 99 (6290*)

108. In an Equifax credit report dated February 14, 2017, USAA inaccurately reported that there was a “scheduled payment amount” of $343, even though Plaintiff was discharged on 9/19/2016 and no payments were due on this account creating the misleading and false impression that a debt was still owed and due.
109. On or about March 23, 2017, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(2), Plaintiff disputed USAA’s reported information regarding its reported obligation by notifying Equifax, in writing, of the incorrect and inaccurate credit information furnished by USAA.
110. Specifically, Plaintiff sent a letter, certified, return receipt, to Equifax (the “Equifax Dispute Letter”), requesting the above inaccurate and incorrect derogatory information be removed, corrected or deleted.
111. Upon information and belief, upon receiving the Equifax Dispute Letter, Equifax timely notified USAA of the dispute based on its mandated statutory duty pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i.
112. Defendants were each required to conduct an investigation into this specific account on Plaintiff’s consumer report pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i.

113. On or about April 24, 2017, Plaintiff received notification from Equifax through its “reinvestigation” (Equifax Report No. 7114081759) that USAA and Equifax received notice of Plaintiff’s dispute pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(6).
114. A reasonable investigation by these Defendants would have indicated that Plaintiff filed for Chapter 13 bankruptcy and made all required Chapter 13 plan payments, since Plaintiff obtained a discharge.
115. USAA and Equifax failed to conduct a reasonable investigation as required by 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(A) and/or 1681i(a), and wrongly verified inaccurate information in connection with Plaintiff’s credit reports.
116. USAA and Equifax failed to review all relevant information provided by Plaintiff in the dispute to Equifax, as required by and in violation of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(B) and 1681i(a), respectively.
117. USAA and Equifax re-reported the inaccurate derogatory information on Plaintiff’s report. Specifically, USAA and Equifax still inaccurately reported that there was a “scheduled payment amount” of $343, even though Plaintiff was discharged on 9/19/2016. Also, USAA and Equifax now inaccurately reported that there was an “actual payment amount” of $11,243, even though Plaintiff was discharged on 9/19/2016 and no payments were made or due on this account creating the misleading and false impression that a debt was still owed and due.

118. USAA and Equifax, upon receipt of Plaintiff's dispute, failed to conduct an investigation with respect to the disputed information as required by 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(B) and/or 1681i(a), respectively.

119. Due to USAA's and Equifax's failure to reasonably investigate Plaintiff's dispute, they each further failed to correct and update Plaintiff's information as required by 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b)(1)(E), thereby causing continued reporting of inaccurate information in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681-s(2)(b)(1)(C) and/or 1681e(b), respectively.

120. Reporting and rereporting the above-referenced derogatory information also constituted a violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681g(a) because the lack of clarity in the information reported and rereported has the tendency to confuse ordinary consumers like Plaintiff.

121. Plaintiff's continued efforts to correct USAA's and Equifax's erroneous and negative reporting of the discharged debt by communicating Plaintiff's dispute with USAA and Equifax were fruitless.

122. USAA's and Equifax's continued inaccurate and negative reporting of the discharged debt in light of its knowledge of the actual error was willful. Plaintiff is, accordingly, eligible for statutory damages.

123. Also as a result of USAA's and Equifax's continued inaccurate and negative reporting, Plaintiff has suffered actual damages, including without limitation fear of credit denials, out-of-pocket expenses in challenging the Defendants' wrongful representations, damage to his creditworthiness, and emotional distress.

124. By inaccurately reporting account information relating to the discharged debt after notice and confirmation of its errors, USAA and Equifax failed to take the appropriate measures as required under 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s(2)(b)(1)(D) and/or (E), 1681i(a) and 1681e(b), respectively.

RE: Account No. 28

125. In an Equifax credit report dated February 14, 2017, USAA inaccurately reported that there was a "scheduled payment amount" of $494, even though Plaintiff was discharged on 9/19/2016 and no payments were due on this account creating the misleading and false impression that a debt was still owed and due.

126. On or about March 23, 2017, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(2), Plaintiff disputed USAA's reported information regarding its reported obligation by notifying Equifax, in writing, of the incorrect and inaccurate credit information furnished by USAA.

127. Specifically, Plaintiff sent a letter, certified, return receipt, to Equifax (the “Equifax Dispute Letter”), requesting the above inaccurate and incorrect derogatory information be removed, corrected or deleted.
128. Upon information and belief, upon receiving the Equifax Dispute Letter, Equifax timely notified USAA of the dispute based on its mandated statutory duty pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i.
129. Defendants were each required to conduct an investigation into this specific account on Plaintiff’s consumer report pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1681i.
130. On or about April 24, 2017, Plaintiff received notification from Equifax through its “reinvestigation” (Equifax Report No. 7114081759) that USAA and Equifax received notice of Plaintiff’s dispute pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(6).
131. A reasonable investigation by these Defendants would have indicated that Plaintiff filed for Chapter 13 bankruptcy and made all required Chapter 13 plan payments, since Plaintiff obtained a discharge.
132. USAA and Equifax failed to conduct a reasonable investigation as required by 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(A) and/or 1681i(a), and wrongly verified inaccurate information in connection with Plaintiff’s credit reports.

133. USAA and Equifax failed to review all relevant information provided by Plaintiff in the dispute to Equifax, as required by and in violation of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(B) and 1681i(a), respectively.
134. USAA and Equifax re-reported the inaccurate derogatory information on Plaintiff's report. Specifically, USAA and Equifax still inaccurately reported that there was a "scheduled payment amount" of $494, even though Plaintiff was discharged on 9/19/2016. Also, USAA and Equifax now inaccurately reported that there was an "actual payment amount" of $11,501, even though Plaintiff was discharged on 9/19/2016 and no payments were made or due on this account creating the misleading and false impression that a debt was still owed and due.
135. USAA and Equifax, upon receipt of Plaintiff's dispute, failed to conduct an investigation with respect to the disputed information as required by 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s-2(b)(1)(B) and/or 1681i(a), respectively.
136. Due to USAA's and Equifax's failure to reasonably investigate Plaintiff's dispute, they each further failed to correct and update Plaintiff's information as required by 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b)(1)(E), thereby causing continued reporting of inaccurate information in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681-s(2)(b)(1)(C) and/or 1681e(b), respectively.

137. Reporting and rereporting the above-referenced derogatory information also constituted a violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681g(a) because the lack of clarity in the information reported and rereported has the tendency to confuse ordinary consumers like Plaintiff.
138. Plaintiff's continued efforts to correct USAA's and Equifax's erroneous and negative reporting of the discharged debt by communicating Plaintiff's dispute with USAA and Equifax were fruitless.
139. USAA's and Equifax's continued inaccurate and negative reporting of the discharged debt in light of its knowledge of the actual error was willful. Plaintiff is, accordingly, eligible for statutory damages.
140. Also as a result of USAA's and Equifax's continued inaccurate and negative reporting, Plaintiff has suffered actual damages, including without limitation fear of credit denials, out-of-pocket expenses in challenging the Defendants' wrongful representations, damage to his creditworthiness, and emotional distress.
141. By inaccurately reporting account information relating to the discharged debt after notice and confirmation of its errors, USAA and Equifax failed to take the appropriate measures as required under 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681s(2)(b)(1)(D) and/or (E), 1681i(a) and 1681e(b), respectively.
